

Medical Christianity that we Can Revive the Dead a New Form of Christianity

James T Struck*

A French American Museum of Chicago, Dinosaurs Trees Religion and Galaxies, USA

Corresponding author: James T Struck, BA, BS, AA, MLIS, A French American Museum of Chicago, Dinosaurs Trees Religion and Galaxies, NASA, PO BOX 61, Evanston IL 60204, USA.

Received Date: August 09, 2023

Published Date: September 01, 2023

Introduction

Christianity can be seen as closely connected to the resurrection of Jesus.

“For the Christian tradition, the bodily resurrection was the restoration to life of a transformed body powered by spirit, [web 3] as described by Paul and the Gospel authors, that led to the establishment of Christianity. In Christian theology, the resurrection of Jesus is “the central mystery of the Christian faith” [1].

Discussion

Since we view resurrection as key to Christianity, the revivifying of the dead can be seen as a new form of Christianity.

The dead are asleep, and they can be woken up. Mary Baker Eddy believed that the dead are not dead but spirits. We can argue for a new form of Christianity where we can revivify or electrify or re-awaken the dead.

Conclusion

We show a new form of Christianity about waking up the sleeping dead.

Acknowledgement

None.

Conflict of Interest

The authors declare no conflict of interest.

References

1. Resurrection of Jesus. Wikipedia.